GCC Clause 23 : Termination for Default GCC Clause (Resolution No. 07-2019)

23.1 The Procuring Entity may rescind or terminate a contract for default, without prejudice to other courses of action and remedies available under the circumstances when, outside force majeure, the supplier fails to deliver or perform any or all of the goods within the period(s) specified in the contract, or within any extension thereof granted by the Procuring Entity pursuant to a request made by the Supplier prior to the delay, and such failure amounts to at least ten percent (10%) of the contract price.

23.2 The Procuring Entity may terminate the contract when, as a result of force majeure the Supplier is unable to deliver or perform any of all the goods amounting to at least ten percent (10%) of the contract price, for a period of not less than sixty (60) calendar days after receipt of the notice from the Procuring Entity stating that the circumstance of force majeure is deemed to have ceased.

23.3 The Procuring Entity shall terminate the contract when the Supplier fails to perform any other obligations under the contract.

23.4 In the event the Procuring Entity terminates this Contract in whole or in part for any of the reasons provided under GCC Clause 23 to 26, the Procuring Entity may procure, upon such terms and in such manner as it deems appropriate, Goods or Services similar to those undelivered, and the Supplier shall be liable to the Procuring Entity for any excess cost for such similar Goods or Services. However, the Supplier shall continue performance of this Contract to the extent not terminated.

23.5 In Case the delay in the delivery of the Goods and/or performance of the Services exceeds a time duration equivalent to ten percent (10%) of the specified contract time plus any time extension duly granted to the Supplier, the Procuring Entity may terminate this Contract, forfeit the Supplier's performance security and award the same to a qualified Supplier.
